BUFFALO LAKE

Located between Stettler and Camrose, it's the perfect place for family weekend escapes! Enjoy the scenery or have some fun in the sun. You will find facilities for picnics, swimming, boating, golfing, fishing, and more! Rochon Sands Provincial Park, on the southeast side of the lake, offers a public boat launch, great camping facilities and the best public access to the lake. Buffalo Lake, with the surrounding woodland, provides homes for many native species. Walking and biking trails wind around the park. A public beach is maintained, though not supervised.

P&H GRAIN

The P&H (Parrish & Heimbecker) Elevator in Stettler was built in the 1920's. The elevator handled many thousands of tonnes of grain over its many years of service (closing in 2003). The feed mill was added in the late 1940's and served many farmers in grinding and mixing their livestock feeds. This is one of the last elevator/feed mill complexes left in Alberta.

ATTRACTIONS

OL' MACDONALD'S RESORT

North of Erskine, located right on Buffalo Lake, or MacDonald's provides An outstanding camping getaway for families. They boast playgrounds, a petting zoo, convenience store, Grandma's Kitchen, the MacDonald family museum and beach access to campers or day visitors. Call to make a reservation for tents, RVs and cabins. Ph: (403) 742-6603

STETTLER STEEL WHEEL STAMPEDE

Held in June, this professional rodeo (sanctioned by the Canadian Cowboys Association) draws large crowds with spectacular ranked rodeo action. The annual Steel Wheel Stampede parade is hosted the Saturday of the weekend, with rodeo performances on the Friday and Saturday evenings, followed by a cabernet (18+). The rodeo is fun for all ages!

STETTLER TOWN & COUNTY MUSEUM

The museum collects preserves & exhibits artifacts pertaining to the history of Stettler & area. The 5th largest pioneer museum in Alberta, the Stettler Town and County Museum plays host to 10 historical buildings with various exhibits in each. Historical information from 1905 to the present is available, Including newspaper collections, area cemetery books, original photos, school registers, and family histories.
